Joint U.S./Mexico Drug Law Enforcement and Mexican Drug Trafficking

The DEA Museum is pleased to present the Spring 2009 Lecture Series featuring joint operations between the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration and Mexico. Please join us for the second lecture of our series:

BEHIND THE HEADLINES:

GETTING THE JOURNALIST'S PERSPECTIVE ON THE U.S./MEXICO DRUG ISSUE

Wednesday, April 22, 10:00 a.m.

DEA HQ Auditorium

Please enter through the museum entrance on Hayes Street

As the drug-related violence continues in Mexico, correspondents on both sides of the border have covered the issues, sometimes at the expense of their own safety and welfare. In this second lecture, Donna Leinwand of USA Today and the current president of the National Press Club, shares her experiences and perspective covering the Mexican drug trafficking situation.

Sign Language Interpretation will be provided.
